LOUIS J. STELLMAN

Amid the furore of criticism and approval that has greeted President Truman's efforts to bring order out of the post-war chaos, a number of inescapable conclusions are apparent: There can be little doubt of his sincerity; his earnest desire to transcend political ambition in the cause of popular welfare and his ability to analyze national problems in a logical, common-sense way. It is also, unfortunately, true that he lacks the eloquence, the personal magnetism and the world-vision of a great leader such as everyone acknowledged Franklin D. Roosevelt to be. His delivery is dry, often didactic and at times hesitant; yet the thoughts he expresses are well considered, remedially applicable to our economic itches and pains and forceful enough to provoke howls of discomfort or dismay from both the Rightest and Leftist factions whose corns have been trodden upon.

All of which makes Harry S. Truman one of the most interesting and unpredictable figures ever to assume the office of Chief Executive. He thinks Labor has a grievance, tells us so—and why. He doesn't completely trust our allies to promote, unselfishly the Four Freedoms or the principles of the Atlantic Charter. What thinking man or woman does? And he believes in retaining the "ace-in-a-hole" advantage which the atomic bomb gives us as well as some of our military strength. He has said so, frankly, openly, to all the world and minced no words about his reasons. I believe a world poll of popular opinion would overwhelmingly support his stand on both moral and ethical grounds.

Stalin doesn't like him because the Russian dictotor is suspicious of simplicity and political altruism-qualities he has never had a chance to learn or closely to observe. Industrial Monopoly finds in him a stumbling block to the dream of post-war power and profit it has long been cherishing. Thousands, perhaps millions, of his radio listeners, miss the brilliant humor, the compelling delivery, the high vision, riding above the sordid facts of life, that were Roosevelt's most engaging qualities. There is not that touch of genius which gilded even the blunders of Truman's predecessor with a kind of half-false and half-real glory.

The next six months, perhaps, will demonstrate the comparative value of these two men not only to this country but to the world-at-large. I am not going to stick my neck out in determined prophecy. But, if anybody wants or values my opinion it is this:

I believe Harry Truman can and will make the grade in one of the most difficult tasks ever imposed on a human being.

The curtain will rise tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 on the fall production of the Menlo Players' Guild, The Good Bad Man, which will be presented at Central school auditorium.

The play is a fast-moving mystery-comedy in three acts and the setting is the living room of a ranch house located a few miles from the Mexican border.

The costumes worn by the cast are beautiful and colorful, especially the Mexican garb worn by the good bad man" and the not so good Mexican girl, Mercedes Cordova. In contrast to their costumes is the black worn by the frightened corner and the drab outfit of the crazy woman.

When the curtain rises, the corpse of a murdered man is discoevred lying on the living room floor where it remains throughout the play.

Produced and directed by A. Clay Gaines, the following members will appear in this play:

Tony, Vernon Barker; Brenda Mason, Celee Sundquist; Don Beverley, H. Dean Cheney; Miss Whitman, Betty Lomax; Peggy Kendall, Theresa Roberto; Horace Potter, Danny Daniel; Allen Barstow, Louis Rothenberg; Caleb, Cliff Mott; Mrs. Corliss, Ethel Gaines; and Mercedes Cordova, played by Jane George.

The production staff is composed of: associate director, Kay Barker; stage crew, John Drinkrow, John Lomax, Ernest Purcell; properties, Lourene Daniel, Nellie McLoughlin; make-up, Phyllis Solon; box office, George Terhune; door, William F. Cutter; business manager, Ethel Gaines; and ushers, Pat Cole, Louis Purcell, Mona Rothenberg, and Mel Terhune.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Krogh, former residents of Palo Alto, have taken a home at 857 Partridge ave.

• Mrs. Josephine Childs and Mrs. Myrtle Owens are enjoying a month's vacation and plan to take a motor trip if weather permits.

Wrong Car

Herbert Hawk, 18, and Martin Pearson, 21, sailors from Tanforan, finding themselves at beam-ends in Menlo Park this week, took an automobile on Partridge avenue in Menlo Park and went up the highway on a joy ride.

The car was reported missing and the sailors were picked up in San Carlos by police officers on that city's police force.

The sailors got an unpleasant jolt when they discovered that the car belonged to Naval Commander W. B. Pattee.

Both men were turned over to the shore patrol by the San Carlos officers.

Kathleen Norris Speaks Here Today

Kathleen Norris speaks today at Central school auditorium at the regular meeting of the Menlo Park Parent-Teacher Association. The program follows a short business session at 2:30 p.m.

The popular novelist, widow of the late Charles G. Norris, also well-known writer of fiction, is a favorite among the patrons of the local library, according to Mrs. Vera Johnson, librarian. When asked to display several of Mrs. Norris' novels on the PTA bookshelf this week, Mrs. Johnson was at a loss, stating that they were usually out on loan.

It is expected that today's program topic, "Home Ethics," will again reveal Mrs. Norris' faculty to understand human nature and to portray the amenities of family life. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to friends of PTA.

During the social hour, refreshments will be served by mothers of the sixth grades of Central and Fremont schools.

Friends and members of PTA are again reminded of the rummage sale on Friday and Saturday of next week, from 9 to 5 in Central school. Donations are still most welcome.

• Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Warzee spent last week end on a motor trip to Paradise, near Oroville.

More Workers Needed For Bond Drive

Mrs. Jerome Potter, chairman of the Menlo Park Victory War Loan committee, voiced a plea for additional workers and urged local residents to support the eighth and final bond drive with substantial purchases. Mrs. Potter said that to date, only $20,000 has been realized toward a $120,000 E bond total.

A list of workers who have been enlisted in Menlo Park and unincorporated areas was announced this week. Mrs. John Howard is the Menlo Park captain. Her workers will include Martin Johnson, Mrs. John Fraser, Mrs. Florence Ohler, Jess Rapled and Orwin Hurlbut.

Felton Gables is being handled by Fred West and J. L. Rogers. Mrs. R. Ballerini is captain for Menlo Oaks, assisted by Mrs. Charles Cheeld and Mrs. Rupert Bradley. Mrs. Edna L. Morton is captain in North Palo Alto and Mrs. Peter Jensen and Mrs. Dora Davidson are handling the work in the Nash tract.

A. L. Reagan is chairman for the Victory Loan drive in East Palo Alto. His captains are Mrs. Ray Stacy, William Gurr, Mrs. Albert Hansen and Mrs. E. H. Davis.

Mrs Potter stresses the following salient points in regard to the Victory Loan drive: "The was is over, but the bills still must be paid; bills for ammunition and equipment; bills for bringing our heroes home from battle fronts around the globe; bills for hospitalizing wounded men and bills for rehabilitating great numbers of our fighting men. These bills are our own responsibility—we must make the Victory Loan drive a success. It is the least we can do to keep faith with those who paid with their lives."

The meeting will commemorate the century of Cardinal Newman's entry into the Catholic Church.

Mrs. Miebach will also read Cardinal Newman's famed poem Dream of Gerontius, which will be discussed by the group.

Need For Neckties Heard At Red Cross Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Staff and Sector Council of the Menlo Park-Atherton Branch, American Red Cross, was held last week at the home of Mrs. A. J. Ersted.

Communications were read from the Berkeley Chapter concerning Christmas messages in braille and a letter from enlisted men on Okinawa, thanking the Branch for sweaters, and telling of their usefulness after the recent hurricane that swept the island.

It was announced that the new name of the Board of Directors will be known as the Staff and Sector Council.

Mrs. Jerome Potter introduced Mrs. Maurine Staley, head of recreation department and Miss Howard, supervisor and head of case history at Dibble hospital.

Mrs. Paul Streit appealed to the council for help in the housing situation which confronts Dibble in regard to Duty officers and their families. She cited numerous case histories and asked for aid in reporting any guest houses in the vicinity which might be obtainable.

Mrs. J. Parker outlined her new project of collecting neckties for distribution among patients discharged from Dibble hospital. She stipulated that the ties must be in good condition. She plans to distribute the ties as the patients recieve their discharge. It was pointed out that over 20 patients are discharged each week. Mrs. Parker called for volunteers for this service.

Mrs. Stanley spoke briefley on recreation at Dibble and asked for continued interest in Red Cross. She stressed the importance of Canteen and hoped the Council could arrange Saturday night kitchen parties in which patients might participate in the work.

Field Director, Barrows, spoke of a new Veterans Hospitality committee which will participate with Red Cross and other organizations in entertaining soldiers at Christmas at Dibble. She said this will not, however, supplant the Camp and Hospital Corps.

It was announced that a shipment of wool had been received and an appeal for knitters was also made.

• Lieut. (j.g.) Lewis C. Carroll, USN, is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. J. M. Stanley, 138 Princeton road. Lieut. Carroll was on the USS Lanswood. He has been in the service for four years and was discharged this week on the point system. Lieut. Carroll was physical instructor in the navy with Gene Tunney.

After a visit with his sister and brother-i-n-law, he will return to him home in Gresham, Oregon.

Chestnut St. Bids Rejected

With the feeling that the contractors will not be so expensive next year, the city conucil rejected the two bids for the improvement of Chestnut street at its meeting last Tuesday night. This is the second time an attempt has been made to improve the street. It was suggested that the improvement be made at the same time as that of Santa Cruz avenue to keep down the cost. A spokesman for the property owners on Chestnut said he thought the plan would meet with their approval.

L. C. Smith and Peninsula Pacific Construction company, were the two bidders. Both entered bids exceeding $4,000. The estimated cost was $3,-300.

With the exception of oiling the walks, work on the re-landscaping of memorial park is complete, according to Eugene Thomas who contracted the job.

Wallace Brown reported that in order to install lights on the Dibble hospital direction sign at the corner of El Camino and Ravenswood, a petition bearing 25 names from the lighting district would have to be presented to the board of supervisors. The lights were requested by Col. Paul Streit of Dibble hospital.

A letter from Fred Beer, county controller, advised the council that the total value of assessable properties within the incorporated limits of Menlo Park for the fiscal year of 1945-46 is $2,912,315.

John A. Sullivan, safety chairman of the Men's Club of St. Joseph school asked that something be done to make Valparaiso safer for children who ride bicycles to and from school. He suggested that the street from Crane street to San Mateo drive or the city limits be resurfaced to the curb. It was pointed out that half of the street lies in Menlo Park and the other half in Atherton. The matter was referred to Max Mielke who is to report at the next meeting.

A resolution was passed prohibiting parking on the creek side of Creek Drive between Cornell road and El Camino.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess, in proclaming the three days as Forget-Me-Not days, urged residents of Menlo Park and community to support the program by buying a flower and wearing it as a tribute to the men who have given so much to the preservation of Democracy.

"We can do nothing for those who made the supreme sacrifice" said Mayor Burgess "except to do honor to their memory, but we can all cooperate in helping those who have returned disabled to again become self-sustaining.

Womens' Club

One of the most enjoyable affairs given for some time by members of the Menlo Park Women's club, was the tea and bazaar held last Tuesday afternoon at Presbyterian church social hall.

Following a business meeting, Mrs. G. C. Cranor, 823 Valparaiso, showed several reels of motion pictures taken in Korea, where she lived for some years. Mrs. Cranor accompanied the pictures with an extremely interesting and delightfully humorous commentary which increased the enjoyment of those present. The pictures showed every phase of Korean life, playgrounds, markets, missions, villiage and farm life.

Flowers and potted plants were on sale and a white elephant table was popular with the large crowd which attended the affair, in spite of rain.

A delightful tea was served, the proceeds of which will go toward buying a victory bond.

Mrs. William Forsythe and Mrs. William Gwinn were chairmen for the flower and plant table and Mrs. Rorert Ricker had charge of the white elephant table.

Tea hostesses were: Mesdames, E. C. Gardner, J. L. Bruce, J. A. Buchman, Don Emerson Hall, and Miss Ellen Coolidge.

ften wonder where Hollywood directors get the ideas for ehavior of their actors in so- films. They don't act, dress, r look like any member of the rawer social set I have ever Even members of cafe society scorn the antics that are pic- on the screen as the bona goings on of the elite. They smack of the livery stable set.

I have in mind, a motion picture I saw several weeks ago—society crowd—ultra sophisticated, very swank and crawling with lower case culture.

The story concerns a man and wife in the younger social set. They live in a house the size of grand central station, that looks as if it had been furnished by Barnum and Bailey. They fight all the time, not about anything in par- tucular—they just fight. The wife decides that she wants a divorce. She hasn't a cupful of grounds for a divorce, but her husband, being one of the Plantagenet Van Scal- lops, decides to do the manly thing and let her get one; so he gets drunk and goes wading in his tux- edo in a lily pond, in the main din- ing room of the Giltmore-Plaza hotel. His escapade makes the front page of all the New York papers and thoroughly humiliated, she sues for divorce and gets it. She goes to Europe. Van Scallop can't make up his mind whether to commit sui- cide or drink himself to death—so he goes bass fishing.

Reel two finds the wife back in America where she gets herself en- gaged to a self-made bounder nam- ed George Updyke. George is terri- ble, his clothes are all wrong, he mounts his horse from the wrong side, table silverware gets him all mixed. He has scads of money, but his grammar sounds like Tobacco Road.

The ex-wife and her erstwhile husband meet occasionally at so- ciety shindigs, where they either ignore each other or casually shake hands and engage in airy persi- flage, according to how they hap- pen to feel at the moment. The wife introduces her former husband to her current fiance—then the fun begins. Van Scallop thinks Updyke is a toad and snubs him—he makes Updyke look like a fool at every op- portunity.

By this time, the wife is not so hot about Updyke either—but she's gotten herself in the soup and she doesn't know how to get out of it.

Comes reel four. Plantagenet Van Scallop realizes that he still loves his former wife and decides to bust her engagement to Updyke, by mak- ink her jealous; so he starts hit- ling the night spots with a blonde cutie from a Broadway chorus. He picks a strip-teaser who really has what it takes. It works. His ex-wife in green-eyed with fury. By this time, she is so sick of Updyke that she could cheerfully put arsenic in his coffee.

In the last reel Plantagenet Van Scallop drives the chorus girl to a night club out in the country. The wife gets wind of it and drags Up- dyke to the same joint. At the club, the wife and the chorus girl en- gage in a knock-down, drag-out fight. The wife gives her rival a beautiful shellacking and leaves the club with Van Scallops. Updyke sneaks out through the kitchen (the cad) and drives home alone in his car. No one seems to give a hoot how the chorus girl gets home—but I'll bet she didn't walk.

The last shot is a picture of the Van Scallops in a clinch. As the sun comes up in the east, they head for a hamburg wagon and get chummy as all get aut with the rest of the customers who are most- ly drunken bums. It isn't art, but I'll bet it's an awfully good living.

Native Sons and Daughters Launch Drive To Benefit Homeless Children

Native Sons and Daughters will devote much of their time this month working on their drive for money to carry on the work which they have been doing for the past 35 years—providing good homes for homeless children.

Started by the late Fairfax Wheeler, of San Francisco, a leader in civic affairs, and carried on each year by the Native Sons and Daughters, good homes have been provided for hundreds of children.

No line is drawn as to race, color or creed, but children are placed with persons of the same religion as the parents of the youngsters.

A native son himself, Governor Warren is chairman of the cam- paign's statewide sponsoring com- mittee, which includes many of the state's most prominent personages.

Members of the Menlo Parlor, will solicit funds here during No- vember, according to Mrs. Agnes Mosher, chairman of the drive. "We realize that various drives have been held in Menlo Park and in order that the campaign will not be too much of a drain financially, seals will be sold to put the drive over," Mrs. Mosher said. These seals will sell for ten cents each or a block of 100 for $1.00.

EVERY DAY the cost of war continues in the two-way flow of ships—in-bound and out-bound under the Golden Gate Bridge. Men and women coming home to civilian life. Men and women transferred back to rehabilitation centers and hospitals. Men and women and supplies sailing out to far-distant occupation areas. The fighting war is over. Now we must help pay the bill through this final drive, the eleven billion dollar Victory Loan.

We owe these specific debts which we should be glad to pay, through the Victory Loan . . .

1. Care of the Wounded. This is a debt we can never fully repay. With Victory Bonds you lend your money to help pay for this work.

2. Bringing Men Home. It costs as much to bring men home as it did to send them over. This job has just started.

3. Rehabilitation of Veterans. In addition to mustering out pay, the guarantees of the G. I. Bill of Rights must be met for education, loans and other aids.

4. Payment for War Material. Huge sums are needed to pay for materials of war produced and used in action months ago.

Put away every extra dollar you can in Victory Bonds. Hold them for such future uses as owning your home, educating the children, for starting a business or as a savings fund for emergencies. For the last time—buy bonds—extra bonds every week of the Victory Drive.

NOV. 21, 1945
AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR THOUSANDS OF ARMY VETERANS
NOW IN CIVILIAN LIFE

Between now and November 21, thousands of Army veterans will reenlist in Uncle Sam's new volunteer peacetime Army. Because—men who have been discharged between May 12 and November 1 of this year and reenlist on or before November 21 will be able to return to the Army with the same grade as they held when discharged.

Men with six months of satisfactory service discharged as privates will, on reenlistment before November 21, be given the grade of private first class.

Men now in the Army who apply for discharge after NOVEMBER 1 for the purpose of reenlisting in the Regular Army will also retain their present grades, if they enlist within 20 days after discharge and before FEBRUARY 1, 1946.

"BEST JOB IN THE WORLD"

These special privileges are typical of the new law recently passed by Congress. Few opportunities for a lifetime career offer as many attractive advantages.

Can you think of any other job that would give you good pay, your food, clothing, quarters, free medical and dental care, world-wide travel, 30 days' furlough every year, education and training in any of nearly 200 skills or trades, and enable you to retire with a life income any time after 20 years' service?

There isn't any! That's why a job in the Regular Army has been called "The Best Job in the World."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men with 6 months' service.)

2. Men reenlisting retain their present grades, if they reenlist within 20 days after discharge and before Feb. 1, 1946. The same applies to men discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1, 1945, who reenlist before Nov. 21, 1945.

3. An increase in the reenlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since the bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.

4. 20% extra pay when overseas.

5. Paid furlough, up to 90 days, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid to home and return, for men now in the Army who enlist.

6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.

7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service — or three-quarters pay after 30 years. (Retirement income in grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $155.25 per month for life.) All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.

8. Benefits of GI Bill of Rights.

9. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist or reenlist before July 1, 1946.

10. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistments.

New Time-Saving Schedules and Improved Service Now in Effect

FIRST STEP

In Greyhound's New Program to give you Finer Service

Lifting of wartime restrictions was the go-ahead signal for putting into effect the finer peacetime service long planned by Greyhound. The first step brings you improved and more frequent schedules made possible by reduced running time and delivery of essential equipment.

It's been going on for months—the great organization job behind these new schedules. Now, you will arrive sooner, often saving hours. More seats and more comfort too, because there will be more buses daily.

And this is only the beginning! The road ahead is clear. Greyhound is going forward with the development of new, luxurious Super-Coaches, the construction and modernization of terminals, as well as other plans to make bus travel more attractive than ever before.

Look to Greyhound for a highway transportation service that will continually grow in value to you and to your community.
